The Governor issued the following proclamations

A Proclamation

By the Governor of the State of Missouri

Whereas, the first section of an act entitled "an act to provide for the call of a convention," approved Feb. 27, 1843. provided that a vote should be opened at the general election in 1844. "upon the expediency of calling a Convention, to amend, alter or make a new constitution of this State," and Whereas, the sixth section required, that "if a majority of the votes thus given, should be for a Convention, the Governor should, in the month of April, one thousands eight hundred and forty five, order an election to be held at the several places of voting in this State, on the first monday in August, one thousands eight hundred and forty five, to elect delegates to said Convention"; and

Whereas, it has been duly certified by the Secretary of State, to the Governor, as required by the fifth section of said act, that a majority of the votes at said election, on the expediency of calling a Convention, were given in favour of a Convention.

Now, Therefore, I, John C. Edwards, Governor of the State of Missouri, by virtue of the sixth section of the aforesaid act, do hereby "order an election to be held at the several places of voting in this State, on the first monday in August one thousands eight hundred and forty five, to elect delegates to said Convention" and "each Senatorial district shall, and is hereby authorized to elect double the number to serve in said Convention, which said district may be entitled by law to elect to the Senate of this State at the time of said election" of delegates to the Convention, as required by the seventh section of said act; which time, is the first monday in August, 1845.

Seal

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Missouri to be affixed. Done at the City of Jefferson this 24th day of April, A.D. 1845.

John C. Edwards.

A Proclamation

By the Governor of the State of Missouri.

Whereas, it is considered right and proper, that we should gratefully acknowledge the goodness of God, displayed in the preservation of our lives, our civil and religious liberties, and our republican institutions, and for every blessing temporal and spiritual, which we enjoy:

And whereas, the abundant fruitfulness of the year, and the protection of the State from invasion, insurrection and intestine commotion, and the citizens from plague, pestilence and famine, demand a return of thanks to Him, whose arm has brought this protection—

Now Therefore, under a full sense of obligation and duty, and in accordance with the request of the various religious denominations, I, John C. Edwards, Governor of the State of Missouri, do, by this, my public Proclamation, recommend to the good people of this State, that, without any distinction of sect, denomination or creed, they observe Thursday, the 25th day of December next, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his favour, extended to us nationally and individually.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson this nineteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty five, and of the Independence of the United States, the seventieth.

Seal

November 6. The Governor issued the following Proclamation.

A Proclamation

By the Governor of the State of Missouri:

Whereas, It is considered right among the nations of the earth who profess the benign religion of the Prince of Peace, that we should cheerfully and gratefully acknowledge the goodness & mercy of Almighty God, displayed in the preservation of our lives, of our civil and religious liberties, and for every blessing, both temporal and spiritual which we enjoy:

And Whereas, the abundant fruitfulness of the year, and the protection of the State from invasion, tho' engaged in waging a rightful war with a foreign power at this time, protection from insurrection, from intestine commotion of all kinds, the protection of our citizens from the disturbances of public peace, & call for a return of thanks to Him whose wise and kind blessings—

Now, Therefore, under a full sense of duty, and of obligation, in accordance with a time honoured custom, and in conformity with the expressed wishes of various christian sects, I, John C. Edwards, Governor of the State of Missouri, do, by this my proclamation, recommend to the good people of this State, that, without any distinction of sect, denomination, or creed, they observe Thursday, the third day of December next, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his favours, nationally and individually.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson, this sixth day of November A.D. 1846.

A Proclamation

By the Governor of the State of Missouri

Whereas, it has been represented to me that on the 23rd day of September A.D. 1846. a murder was committed in the county of Dade in the State of Missouri, on the body of Shirley, Isdale, by Benjamin Hail, Jno Sprowles, Chovil H. Kirby, Haynes Grant, Edwin Hendrick, Joseph C. Hail, Patric Hail and Whitefield C. Lefors — and whereas at an adjourned term of the Circuit Court within and for the county of Dade, commencing on monday, the 14th day of December A.D. 1846

the grand jury found a true bill against the aforesaid Benjamin Hail, Wm Sprowles, Chovie H. Kerby, Haynes Grant, Edwin Hendrick, Joseph C. Hail, Patric Hail and Whitefield C. Lepors, for the murder of the aforesaid Shirley Tisdale: and whereas, four of the persons above named, to wit: Benjamin Hail, Wm Sprowles, Chovie H. Kerby, Haynes Grant and Edwin Hendrick, are not in the custody of the law, but are going at large, to the great detriment of the peace, good order and dignity of the State: Now, therefore, I, John C. Edwards, Governor of the State of Missouri, do hereby offer a reward of two hundred and fifty dollars for the apprehension of the aforesaid fugitives, to wit: Benjamin Hail, Wm Sprowles, Chovie H. Kerby, Haynes Grant and Edwin Hendrick; or fifty dollars for each, or either of them, and his, or their delivery to the sheriff of Dade county.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed hereto, the great Seal of the State of Missouri.

September 9.

The Governor issued the following Proclamation.

A Proclamation.

By the Governor of the State of Missouri.

Whereas, it is considered right, and is a time-honoured custom among the nations of the earth who profess the christian religion, to publickly, cheerfully and gratefully acknowledge the goodness and mercy of Almighty God, as displayed in the preservation of our lives, of our civil and religious liberties, and of every blessing, both spiritual and temporal which we enjoy: and

Whereas; The great and abundant fruitfulness of the year, the protection of our State from invasion tho' engaged in waging a rightful war with a foreign power at this time, the signal victories he has vouchsafed to our arms, the preservation of our soldiers in the hour of battle, protection from insurrection, and from intestine commotion of all kinds: ~~the protection of our people from the dire pestilences of pestilence and famine~~, and the general health, and signal temporal prosperity, of our citizens, call for a return of thanks to Him whose will has caused these blessings.

Now, therefore, I, John C. Edwards, Governor of the State of Missouri, under a full and clear sense of duty and obligation, and in conformity with the expressed wishes of various christian churches, do, by this my proclamation, recommend to the good people of this State, that, without any distinction of sect, denomination or creed, they observe Thursday, the twenty fifth day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his manifold favours nationally and individually.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed hereto, the great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson this ninth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven.

A Proclamation

By the Governor of the State of Missouri.

Whereas it is deemed proper, to publicly, and gratefully, acknowledge the goodness and mercy of Almighty God, as displayed in the preservation of our lives, of our civil & religious liberties and of every blessing, both spiritual and temporal which we enjoy; and, Whereas the abundant fruitfulness of the year — the protection of our people — the happy state of peace and harmony, in which we live, whilst other countries are convulsed with commotion & discord — the protection of our people from the sore plagues of famine and pestilence; and the general health & prosperity, of our citizens, call for an offering of thanks to Him whose will has caused our happy condition —:

Now, therefore, I, John C. Edwards, Governor of the State of Missouri, under a solemn sense of duty, and obligation, & in conformity, with the expressed wishes of various Christian churches, do, by this my proclamation, recommend to the good people of this State, that, without any distinction of sect, denomination or creed, they assemble Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his manifold favours.

In testimony, whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed hereto, the Great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson this twenty, eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty, eight, of the Independence of the United States the seventy, third, and of this State the twenty ninth.

By the Governor of the Governor of the State of Missouri.

Whereas, it has been represented to me, that a murder has been committed in the county of Mississippi in this State, on the body of Edward Hall, by one John Dawson; and whereas the aforesaid John Dawson was committed to the county jail of the county of Cape Girardeau, for safe keeping & to answer his trial in the county of Scott, to which, there was a change of venue from the county of Mississippi: And whereas, on the night of the 21st of September A.D. 1848 the said John Dawson (by the aid of his friends) burned the jail and made his escape therefrom, and is now going at large, to the great detriment of the peace, good order and dignity of the State.

Now, therefore, I, John C. Edwards Governor of the State of Missouri, do hereby offer a reward, of three hundred dollars for the apprehension and delivery of the said John Dawson to the sheriff of Cape Girardeau county;

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed hereto the Great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson this third day of November A.D. 1848. Of the Independence of the United States the seventy third & of this State the twenty ninth.
